Of the others who have applied, the Council evidently considers Mr Venkateswara Aiyar to be the best. (Many other names could be thought of - e.g. Jawaharlal Nehru Banerji, but the Council apparently wants one with a knowledge of South Indian history) As regards salaries proposed, they are based on the supposition that the rate of pension leave contributions for H.S. appointments are applicable to opening the Provincial services. But no final decision on the point has been received. Though it is certain that the existing rate (12½%) will be considerably enhanced.

3) Alternatives suggested by the Commissioner are

(1) Upon a salary of Rs 600 – 50 – 850 annual leave pension contributions at 20% will have to be paid by the officer himself. This will leave a net salary of Rs 360 – 30 – 570 and

(2) Upon a salary of Rs 550 – 50 – 850 annual pension contributions at 20% will have to be paid by the officer himself leaving him at a net salary of Rs 422½ – 37½ – 600. In this case we shall have an addition to meet the leave charges

3) In his memorandum Rs 375 has not been taken as the next alternative.

Moreover it is better on the first [illegible] to make no change this is not mentioned in the CE Resolution but is apparently the V.C's alternative

The proposal assumes that we may contribute for pension alone. The Foreign Service Rules of the British Government require that contribution must be paid both for pension and leave salary: vide Rule 115 of the Fundamental Rules. The rate of contribution payable in the case of officers other than members of the Indian Civil Service has not yet been fixed and the exact cost of employing Mr. Venkateswara Iyer cannot, therefore, be calculated. The rate both for pension and leave salary may be about 33 1/3 per cent. NOTE—Contn. sheet.

Submitted to His Highness.

On the resignation of Dr. Radhakumud Mukerji, Professor of History in the Maharaja's College, Mysore, Mr. (now Dr.) R. Shama Sastry was appointed to act temporarily as Professor of Ancient Indian History in addition to his duties as Curator, Oriental Library. As regards permanent arrangements for filling up the place the University was requested to invite applications by public advertisement for a full time Professor of Indian History on Rs.500 to Rs.1,000. The University was also requested to make enquiries as to whether the services of Rao Saheb Dr. S. Krishnaswamy Iyengar who has been lent to the Madras University could not be retransferred to Mysore for employment as Professor of Indian History.

2. Rao Saheb Dr. S. Krishnaswamy Iyengar demanded a pay of Rs.1250 per mensem as University Professor of Indian History and suggested that he should be put in independant charge of the Archaeological Department in addition. The Vice-Chancellor's views as intimated by the Registrar in the D. O. letter No.1173 dated the 28th February 1922, and Rao Saheb S. Krishnaswamy Iyengar's letter of the 6th March 1922 on the subject were informally considered in Council on the 8th March 1922, when the question of amalgamating Archaeological work in the State with the functions of Professor of Indian History was definitely dropped and the University Council was requested to send up its final recommendations with reference only to the Professorship in the University. Since then separate arrangements have been made for the work of the Archaeological Department.

3. All the applications for the Professorship including that of Dr. Krishnaswamy Iyengar were considered at the meeting of the University Council held o the 27th May 1922 when it was resolved that Mr. S. V. Venkateswara Iyer, M.A., L.T., Lecturer, Ceded Districts College, Anantapur, be appointed Professor of Indian History in the Mysore University on Rs.600 with an annual increment of Rs.50 the appointment being made for a period of five years, and pensionary and leave contributions being paid by Mr. Venkateswara Iyer himself.

4. The matter was considered at a meeting of the Council on the 26th June 1922 when it was resolved that "Mr. Venkateswara Iyer may be appointed Professor of Indian History for 3 years on a salary of Rs.450 nett with an annual increment of Rs.50, pension and leave contributions being paid by the Government".

5. The proportion of pension and leave contributions payable in respect of officers of the British Indian Service whose services are lent to Indian States has recently been raised to 40% in the case of officers of the Indian Civil Service and it has been intimated that in the case of officers of other services also the rate of contributions will be raised. If the same rate as has been sanctioned in the case of Indian Civil Service officers is prescribed for officers of the Educational service, the salary proposed by the University Council would leave Mr. Venkateswara Iyer a nett salary of Rs.360 only which he is not likely to accept, as he will soon be drawing Rs. 400, if he is not already drawing that amount, in the Madras Service.

The Council therefore thought that he should get at least Rs.50 more as nett pay on foreign service and I think there is just the chance of his not accepting even this as he may soon be promoted to the Indian Educational Service.

6. The resolution of the Council to appoint him as Professor may be graciously sanctioned.

Dear Sir,

I am informed that a communication has been received in the University Office here, from the Registrar of the Mysore University, enquiring if it would be conveninet for the Madras University Syndicate to permit of the retransfer of my services to the Mysore University, as from the beginning of the next academic year. I expect the matter will go before the Syndicate in the ordinary course and that they might ask to know my views before giving a reply one way or the other. Of course, I am not in a position to say what their decision would be till I hear from them. From the conversation I had with you in Bangalore and from what the Registrar himself told me I thought I would have been given some information before the matter was taken to the Syndicate in this bare form. I shall be obliged if you can give me some details in regard to the views of the Government of His Highness the Maharaja so as to enable me to let the Syndicate know what I would like them to do in case I should be consulted. I need hardly add that I should be as pleased to do my work in Mysore as in Madras so long as the interests of the work planned out do not suffer.

2. I do not know if you have had any knowledge of it, but you mighthave heard that before the appointment of Professor Radhakumud Mukherji, Sir Visveswaraya, the then Dewan, asked me to find out if the Madras University would let me revert to Mysore as soon as the University was started. I consulted several influential members of the Syndicate in regard to the matter who wished to know details. In response to this enquiry I had the information from the an influential member of the council at the time that it was not intended that my position should be the ~~right~~ of an ordinary professor of history only, but that it was intended to make a reorganization in case I should go back, of the connected departments, and create at the University a Directorate of Indian Studies at the head of which it was intended I should be placed. This department of Indian Studies was to include the Archaeological Department, the Manuscripts Library, the Indian History Department etc. That naturally had some attraction for me at the time and I made some efforts, but the authorities here were in difficulties of their own in regard to a substitute for me and the matter fell through. I duly reported such efforts I made to the Dewan and there the matter ended.

3. In the light of this previous knowledge and in the interest of the work I may be engaged in, I wish to state the following facts for consideration. My position here at Madras University is eminently that of one detailed for Research work, such lecturing as I do being regarded not as unimportant but as subsidiary to my research work. As a matter of fact I have been systematically delivering two courses of lectures every year, one intended for the Honours students, and one embodying results of my original work, in addition to directing the research students attached to my chair, ~~all these~~ the Course of Lectures being at least two ~~such~~ and occasionally more. The University reorganization is in progress here consequent on the report of the Saddler Committee, and I expect the Department of Indian History and Archaeology at the University will be organized on more favourable lines for the purposes of higher research work. It is not unlikely that the Government of His Highness the Maharaja also have such reorganization in view and I should be very grateful for such information as would enable me to determine the facilities I ~~might~~ are likely to have for work with in Mysore, as I wish to make the few remaining years of my service to complete as much of my projected scheme as I possibly can

One other consideration which had some weight with me on the previous occasion was the natural reluctance to go down from a University Professorship at Madras, subordinate nominally to the Vice Chancellor, to that of a College Professorship with a very junior officer in comparison as Principal. It may not be administratively convenient that I open this question now again, but I dare say that the freedom left to the Professor contemplated to organize and arrange the work of his department would be such that any such subordination would be no more than nominal there. As far as I have been able to learn the communication gives no information as to my graded position among the members of the Department. My salary here is Rs.950/- in the 500-50-1,000 grade ~~plus~~ 95, allowance towards pensionary contribution. I have almost the immediate prospect now of being placed on Rs.1,250/-, the salary for the professor of Economics that is about to be appointed. I have no doubt that that will be taken into consideration and that the Government of His Highness the Maharaja would arrange these matters equitably. I am leaving for Calcutta immediately for taking the doctorate that the University did me the honour of conferring upon me and expect to be back in Madras soon after the 20th. If you will be so good as to give me an idea of the views of His Highness's Government in respect of these matters generally, it will enable me to let the Syndicate know precisely what they had best do in case they should consult me on this particular point.

I am addressing you this letter as it was the Government of His Highness that lent me to Madras and it may not be convenient for the Mysore University to deal with all the points raised herein by themselves. I would be quite content if you would let me know demi-officially for the present.

Yours sincerely,

S. Krishnaswami Aiyangar

Dear Sir,

Owing to my absence from the station, your letter of the 12th ~~instant~~ Dec 19 was received by me only on the 17th. The letter has been duly placed before the Government and I am desired to state that the Govt. have it under contemplation, subject to suitable arrangements as to details, to place the work of the Archaelogical Dept., and the Manuscript library under the Professor of Indian History in the University. It is also hoped to ensure for the Professor of History sufficient freedom and independence to organise and arrange the work of his Department without interference by the Principal of the College. Regarding your salary ~~in case you are appointed~~, Govt. ~~will certainly take into consideration~~ note what you have stated about your present pay and immediate prospects in the Madras University and ~~will endeavour to assure you the same net emoluments here as stated in your letter~~ as stated in your letter.

Dear Sir,

I thank you very much for your D.O. No.3903/CB103-21-7 dated the 3rd inst. I expected to be able to write to you definitely after the last Syndicate meeting. But I find that they have deferred the matter for further consideration at the next meeting of the Syndicate which ought to come off early in February. In the meanwhile, it seems to me best that I ~~may~~ he arm with something more definite than the D.O. under reply.

From what the Councillor in charge and you yourself told me of the matter, I hope I am not putting you to any inconvenience if I ask that the last point, namely, the question of my salary be made a little more specific and the whole embodied in an official memorandum which, if need be, I can make use of on my initiative. This may be transformed into formal orders after the Syndicate here have arrived at a final decision. I hope I am not straining your kindness and the indulgence of the Government too far by asking for this. I would not have asked this but for the fact that the position is getting to be rather delicate for me, and I should like very much to avoid any unpleasantness that may arise out of such action as I might find it necessary to take in the circumstances.

I hope you got the letter I wrote to you in Bangalore regarding the question of the Gazetteer. I should like some information regarding it, as by the last mail I have information from Professor Rapson of Cambridge that the first volume of the Cambridge History of India is ready for issue. The demand for my contribution to that monumental work, I fear, is imminent, and I might have to find room for that item in the immediate future. I hope you will give me definite information early so that I might make my programme without serious inconvenience.

Apologising for the trouble,

Yours sincerely,

Dear Sir,

As the enclosed was about to be posted, I received your D.O.No.5139/C.B. of the 11th instant. I have managed to obtain the permission of the Syndicate to their letting me go in case we two should agree to the re-transfer ,as the enclosed will show. I hope this will enable you to put the matter on a final footing.

Dear Sir,

With reference to correspondence ending with my letter dated 16th ultimo, I enclose herein copy of a communication - which I received from the Registrar of the University of Madras, for your information. You will see therefrom that they leave the matter to be settled between me and Mysore. I take it now that as far as Mysore Government is concerned they are willing to keep on to the terms communicated in your D.O. No.3903/CB 103 -21-7 dated 3rd January, even including the specific statement of salary Rs.1250/0/0, which is not mentioned there,but which was made clear in the course of my conversation with the Councillor and yourself. I hope you will now proceed to put the matter on a proper official footing to enable my intimating the Madras University in time for making arrangements to fill up the vacancy should I finally decide to go from here.

When I came down to Madras seven years ago the appointment was made with the object of creating a Southern Indian School of History, in the widest sense of the term. For a variety of reasons it was impossible to carry out the project to completion so far. I have been looking forward with some expectancy that the remodelling of the Madras University consequenti on the recommendations of the Saddler Commission would give me a freer hand to bring about this desirable consummation, for which Madras has obvious advantages which other centres could not well provide.

By going to Mysore I should not like to forego the chance of creating this School of South Indian culture if I can possibly help it. If, as your D.O. referred to indicates, it is the intention of the Government to give me charge of the Archaeological Department as well, it may go someway towards providing the wider scope which is necessary for the realisation of this project. I feel however that the integrity of the Department should not be destroyed by merging it altogether in the University. The Department ought to maintain its separate character so that I may find the scope for my more advanced students to carry on research work to the point of originality which the public services Commission laid great emphasis on. This can hardly be attained by giving the Archaeological Department a mere subsidiary character in the arrangements foreshadowed in your letter. It seems to me best that the appointment be Professor of Indian History and Archaeology and Ex-officio Director of Archaeological researches.

In respect of work at the University I quite appreciate the sympathetic attitude of the Government to give me freedom to organize my department as I wish. I hope the University authorities will agree to this, and enable me to remodel the course of higher Indian studies with a view to subserve the end I have in view. I am not mentioning this here in any spirit of cavil, or of placing myself above discipline; but I mention it here with a view to putting the matter on a footing of clearness to assure myself of sufficient sympathy for the work, as I have but a few years before me of active work, during which I should like to realise some of my higher ambitions in regard to my work ofresearch, or give them up once for all.

It was suggested to me by one or two friends here who know Mysore, that it would be much better that I take over the Archaeological Department alone without fettering myself with work at the University. I certainly would prefer if that were possible; but would not object to the University work if it be clearly understood that such association should as far as may be so made as not to hamper work. If properly done I have hopes that the arrangement might prove advantageous to all concerned. I shall be glad to submit a detailed scheme, or even discuss the matter personally if called upon to do so. I hope the Government will give the matter their best consideration and let me have their final views as early as convenient to them.

I am further directed to inform the University of Mysore that though the Syndicate would very much regret the loss of your services to the University of Madras, it has decided to leave the matter of your re-transfer to Mysore, entirely to your discretion, and that the University of Mysore may communicate with you direct on the Subject.

Dear Sir

I am enclosing herein for your information copy of a letter I wrote to the Registrar, Mysore University in reply to his letter enquiring whether "you are willing to come back to the Mysore Service and if so the terms, if any, you would propose therefor." This is consequent on the reply he got from the Registrar, University of Madras, I take it. I sent you copy of this already, and I take it you will agree with me I could go no farther than this till I heard in reply from you finally. I hope I have not gone beyond the limits of confidence imposed upon me by your communications. It would be well if I be enabled to have a definite reply very early as I have to set various things in order before leaving, and arrange for giving myself a change for a part of the vacation in the interests of my health which latterly has not been as good as usual.

No. Senate House, 22nd Feb., 1922

Dear Sir,

I just received your letter No.6787/106-21-34 dated the 20th instant, regarding your correspondence with the University of Madras on the question of the re-transfer of my services to Mysore. I should have waited to hear from the Government of H.H. The Maharaja of Mysore before replying to this communication in the ordinary course. As you ask for a reply return post, I have no objection to place the matter before the University as it stands at present.

It will be remembered that my transfer to Madras took place actually before the Mysore University came into existence, and the transfer was made by the Government of H. H. the Maharaja on the application of the Madras University. The offer of the History Professorship in the Mysore University was made to me by Dewan Sir Visvesvayya as soon as the Mysore University was brought into existence--in the summer of 1917 when he met me at OOTY--and he wanted me to find out if Madras would be inclined to let me go back. In the course of this enquiry certain proposals were made to me in regard to my actual position &c., in case it was found possible for me to return to Mysore. As the Mysore University could have had no knowledge of these details, I placed the matter before the Government of H.H. the Maharaja as soon as the Madras University gave me intimation of your letter asking if the retransfer of my services would be acceptable to the Madras University. I am in daily expectation of their final communication in regard to the matter.

Since you ask me to state my terms, I must first acknowledge the consideration involved in the query, and convey my thanks to the University for this mark of their appreciation of my work. In regard to this question I have only to state the matter as it stands. In case I continued in Madras I have the prospect of being placed on a sâlary of Rs.1250/- as the University are about appointing a Professor of Economics on that salary. I believe I may say without breech of confidence, that the Government of H.H. the Maharaja have in a way expressed their willingness to accede to this condition, and are apparently considering other questions connected with this, arising out of the previous proposals under Sir Visvesvarayya's Government. I regret I am not in a position to say more on it till I hear from the Government itself.

I need hardly add that for the present this salary is the least that in ordinary fairness is due to me, and for the rest I must await the orders of Government before I commit myself one way or the other. I may add however that I shall be glad to go back to Mysore, if my services are wanted there, and hope that the Mysore University will not be behind others in the provision they make for helping me forward in my research work. This latter need cause me no anxiety after what the Vice-Chancellor has stated in regard to this matter in his Convocation address, so full of learning and of sympathy for the aspirants after higher learning.

D.O. No. 5327/C.B.103-4 8/15/
dy 25th July '22

Dear Sir,

I am desired to invite a reference to my letter No.2851/C.B.103-21-4 dated the 25th November 1921 on the subject of arrangements for filling up the vacancy caused by the resignation of Dr. Radhakumud Mookerji.

It is understood that as suggested in para 2 of the above letter a reference was made by the University to the Syndicate of the Madras University regarding Rao Saheb Dr. S. Krishnaswamiengar. He has apparently been consulted by the Syndicate of the Madras University and there has been some informal correspondence between him and the Government with reference to his position in the event of the retransfer of his services to the Mysore State.

I am to enclose herein copies of Dr. Krishnawamiengar's letters of the 12th December 1921 and of the subsequent correspondence as per margin.

⊠ (i) My No.3903 dated the 3rd January 1922.
(ii) Dr.S.K.Iyengar's letter dated the 16th January 1922.
(iii) My reply No.5139 of the 11th Feb. 1922.
(iv) Dr.S.K.Iyengar's letter without date and its enclosure (Madras University Registrar's letter No. 1168 dated the 7th Feby.1922 to Dr.S.K. Iyengar)

It is seen from the enclosure to the last letter that the Syndicate of the Madras University has no objection to the retransfer. You will doubtless have heard on this point direct.

The question of filling up the vacancy will therefore come up formally now, and the demi-official correspondence is now passed on to you to facilitate the decision in the matter. I am to request that Dr.S.K.Iyengar's ~~claim and~~ requests may ~~now~~ be considered by you and the University Council along with ~~those of~~ the applications of those ~~applicants~~ who have responded to the advertisement issued in this behalf.

I am ~~only~~ to add that in the event the University recommends Dr. S.K.Iyengar for the post, the Government will be prepared to consider favourably the question of placing the work of the Archaeological Department under the Professor of Indian History and giving him more freedom and independence in his work than has hitherto been the case on the lines indicated in my D.O. letter No. 3903/C.B.103-21-7 dated the 3rd January 1922 ~~to Dr. S.K. Iyenger~~ should the University Council recommend such a course, which, the Government understand would be in ~~concurrence~~ consonance with your expressed views.

Office of the Mysore University,

D.O.No.1173.

Dated Mysore, 28th February 1922.

Dear Sir,

Your D.O. No.532/C.B.103-21 re the appointment of the Professor of History is to hand.

Would you be so kind as to inform me whether the combined question of the appointment of one as Professor of History and Director of Archaeology or only that of Professor of History should be considered by the Council on the 4th proximo for which date the subject is posted for disposal. If the former is meant, the Vice-Chancellor has I believe his own views in the matter, but he is not here. He may or may not be able to attend the meeting. If the latter is meant, it will be disposed of by the Council.

The Vice-Chancellor's views so far as I have been able to gather from what he used to say on this subject may be stated as follows :--

1. In the present circumstances of the special academical needs in Mysore on the one hand, and of financial stringency on the other, it is very undesirable to combine the two offices, tending to the reduction of the working hours of the Professor to find time for touring as Director. His work in the College cannot be entrusted to junior men while he is absent from Mysore. Nor can the University afford to appoint additional professors for Indian History, just now.

2. The Director of Archaeology in this State should possess some special knowledge of Sanskrit and Hale-gannada. And should one not proficient in them be appointed, more Assistants would be required which would only increase the cost.

3. The Vice-Chancellor would have no objection to bringing the Director's office within the control of the University, only if a real Sanskrit and Hale-gannada scholar, who is not a professor, could be entrusted with this work, which would not only

Dear Professor Krishnaswami,

I write to say that I have at last been able to examine your valuable South India and her Muhammadan Invaders. I have to spend part of the year out of England nowadays, and on the wrongside of seventy one cannot work as fast one could in days gone by.

I am so impressed with the importance of bringing before the public the fact that there is as much history worth studying in South India as in North, that I always welcome such original work as yours, and the last book has been a great plea-sure to me. I am using it as a text for an article I have written for the Indian Antiquary on a new investigation of the migrations of Islam into Southern India, with the object of bringing out the points of your book and drawing general atten-tion to a hitherto obscure but important point of history in India.

I am very glad to hear you are working up the subject of Vijayanagar and hope you, or scholars of your type, will by degrees give us monographs on the Cholas and their work and so on. They are badly wanted. By the way, in a very brief sum-mary of Indian history I drew attention to the facts that Raja-raja Chola (979-1002) instituted a revenue survey and that in 1086 Kulottunga Chola carried one out on an extensive scale in the same year as William the Conqueror in England. This may be all wrong, but assuming it to be the case, it is facts like these which will shew to Englishmen what manner of men the old Dravidians were. Doomesday in England and South India in the same year is bound to attract attention and sympathy.

I have on hand to produce some day or other for the Hakluyt Society the tracts of a sailor from Iceland, of all the places in the world, in 1623 in S. India when the Danish settlement at Tranquebar was started. He tried to learn a little Tamil among other things. I have also yet further travels in S. India on hand of Peter Mundy the great English traveller of the middle of the seventeenth century. As puzzles aris in regard to language, history and place-names, I shall ventre to ask for your kind assistance.

Yours truly.

relieve Government of much of its expenditure but vastly increase the scope for University research work.

4. The Professor of History could be entrusted with Numismatics work, which would not require touring.

On hearing from you as to which question should be referred to the Council, I shall take further action. I shall submit the papers to the Vice-Chancellor immediately he returns.

The favour of a reply by return is requested.

UNIVERSITY OF MADRAS

No. 17

Senate House, 6th March 1922.

Dear Sir,

I am very thankful to you for your D.O. No.5244/ C.B. dated the 25th ultimo, intimating to me that the whole question regarding my transfer has been referred to the University and their opinion is awaited before coming to a final decision. I take it then that the time has arrived for me to put the question in full detail before the Government, so that they may give the matter their best consideration and pass their orders.

I take it that it is now understood that I have to hold the two appointments of Professor of Indian History and Archaeology at the University and the Directorship of Archaeological Researches in Mysore on a salary of Rs.1250/- for the time being. This involves the provision of adequate assistance to carry on the work of both the offices with efficiency. I wish to invite attention to the following details in this connection. Successful prosecution of Research is one of the main functions of my work, almost the primary function. The proposed combination of offices may prove to be of great assistance in regard to this part of my work. This takes on the necessary corollary however of publication of Research work. In this matter I must have unfettered discretion in regard to the matter, the time, means etc; ofcourse the Government and the University may publish what is suitable according to their means. All I wish for is there ought to be no kind of Censorship in matters of Research work.

In regard to the next vital item, teaching, the quantity and the quality of it alike will have to be left a great deal to the discretion of the Professor. This I am enjoying at Madras to the fullest extent, and I understand the difference in character between my work at Madras in this branch and that in Mysore. There is the additional consideration that the work of the Department of Archaeology will occupy part of my attention in Mysore. I shall therefore therefore have to arrange this branch of my work by delivering courses of lectures, arranging seminars for work and getting through a large part of it on the tutorial system. This will enable a certain amount of touring being done for purposes of the Archaeological Department. In this connection I may quote a suggestion made by Sir John Marshall, the Director General of Archaeology, Government of India. He would have me constitute my self into a Research School at Madras with adequate assistance, and take the assistance of about four lecturers to do propagandist lecturing work embodying the results of Research in the Moffusil. It would be possible to carry this out in effect with the combination proposed at Mysore with sufficient sympathy and financial aid. If I have both in a reasonable measure, I have hopes I can make a successful effort in this laudable enterprise.

There is a considerable volume of work to be done in the Archaeological Department. A great deal of this work can be done by suitable subordinate agency. If a better organisation of the Department could be brought about and a certain amount of possible coordination between the University and the Department, reasonable progress seems to me possible. The actual details of this, I can hardly give till I am much better acquainted with the Department. A system of Research studentships would enable a combination of teaching and doing possible.

Research studentships may be given by the Government and the University. If outside students come for Research they may be offered facilities of admission at the discretion of the Professor provided they pay their way; direction and guidance may be free for the present. This will lead ultimately to the development of a Research Centre in the humanities, corresponding to the Indian Institute of Science for the Science part of it. This may seem a distant ambition but it is nothing so remote as it may appear at first sight. Such cannot come into existence in a day without lavish expenditure, but a slower pace makes for a surer footing.

The character of the work that this combination involves, must make it necessary for the officer concerned to be placed on a footing of his own, cooperating with the University by taking part in its teaching work to some extent and directing the research work over the greater part of it on the humanities side of it, ~~history~~ history, languages etc. This is just exactly the position that Professors occupy at the older Universities of England, Oxford and Cambridge, and that is what distinguishes the University Professor from those attached to Colleges. I hope this aspect of the question will receive adequate attention, and such orders will be passed as would ensure smooth working, and satisfactory results.

I hope I shall not be misunderstood if I have been a little too frank. My only justification is my anxiety to carry my work to completion in the few years of active work before me, and this aspiration will, I have every hope, meet with the sympathy that it eminently deserves.

With many apologies for the length of the letter,

Yours sincerely,

S. Krishnaswami Aiyangar

Dear Sir,

I acknowledge with many thanks the receipt of your D.05653/C.B dated the 10th inst. and have noted the contents therein. I shall be very grateful if you will be so good as to let me know definitely the wishes of His Highness' Government as early as is possible in the circumstances as my term for 1921-22 closes here wth the end of the current month. I have to make arrangements to give myself the much needed change in the interests of my health, and arrange for the programme of my work for the next year at the University here before the term closes in case I decide to go on here.

No. 82/22 Senate House, 5th April, '22

Dear sir,

Since receiving your last D.O.No. 5344/C.B. dated the 29th ult., regarding the retransfer of my services to Mysore, you know I was in Bangalore on my way up to and down from Mysore. My interview with the Dewan on Saturday the 1st inst., clinches the whole matter and a decision seems possible forthwith.

He gave me to understand that the Government have finally decided to make other arrangements for the conduct of the Archaeological Department, and therefore a combination of the Professorship at the University with the Directorship of Archaeology is out of the question. There therefore remains only the Professorship at the University for which my transfer is sought. What he said in regard to this both in respect of the facilities and emoluments makes it very doubtful whether I could accept the position with dignity. I regret very much that, as he put the matter before me, it is a definite going back upon what you communicated in your D.O. 3903/C.D. 103-21-7 of the 3rd Jan.'22 which was much more clearly explained both in my conversation with you and with the Dewan who was then Education Councillor. While therefore holding myself ready to consider any necessary revision of the details placed before you in my letter dated the 22nd ult., it would be very difficult for me to accept the conditions that the Dewan would impose upon me, as they involve too much of a sacrifice in emoluments and facilities for work. It was never my intention to propose to myself a smaller quantity of work at the University than my predecessor was doing; and if I were to be allowed the fullest freedom to do the least that I could for the University, the least that I could think of doing for the University would be quite as much. I am not trying to persuade the Government to accept me in any case, but am merely attempting to make my position clearer.

I shall be quite content to go on where I am and carry through as much of the projected work as I possibly could, before I come to the end of this term of my office here, and take my chance for the future. I leave, therefore in the hands of the Mysore Government to reconsider the position and let me hear before I finally communicate my decision to the University of Madras. As the Dewan suggested, I am forwarding to the University of Mysore for consideration copy of my letter of the 22nd Feb to you and this so that they may come to their decision with the facts before them

Thanking you in anticipation.

Letter No.64/E.B. dated the 27th January 1922 from J.E.C.Jukes, Esq., C.I.E., I.C.S., Joint Secretary to the Government of India, Finance Department, Delhi, to all Local Governments (including minor local Governments).

SUBJECT:- FOREIGN SERVICE CONTRIBUTION.

Fundamental rule 117 empowers the Governor-General in Council to prescribe the rate of contributions payable on account of the pension and leave salary of Government servants in foreign service.

2. The Government of India have accordingly re-examined the existing rates of contribution, as laid down in article 770 of the Civil Service Regulations, and have been driven to the conclusion that those rates are seriously inadequate and that they involve Government in considerable loss. A recalculation of the rates, in order to ensure that foreign employers make duly proportionate contributions towards the leave salary and pensions of Government servants in their employ, has been taken in hand, and has been completed so far as officers of the Indian Civil Service areconcerned. For that service, the Government of India are pleased to fix, under fundamental rule 117 the following rates of contribution:-

1. For pension only -- 25 per cent of pay actually drawn in foreign service.

2. For leave salary and pension, 40 per cent of pay actually drawn in foreign service.

These rates will come into force with effect from the date of the letter, and will be leviable in the cases of all officers of the Indian Civil Service who are transferred to foreign service on or after the date of receipt of this letter. The local Government will doubtless consider it desirable to bring the change in rates prominently to the notice of all foreign employers who apply for the services of a member of the Indian Civil Service after that date. The rates, are, of course, subject to the revision in the future, should circumstances call for a change.

3. The Government of India are further pleased to fix for the contribution of military officers in foreign employ, the rates prescribed above for the Indian Civil Service. In the case of Military officers the rates are fixed provisionally as a temporary measure, pending the completion of certain calculations which are as yet unfinished.

4. Revised rates of contribution for other services are still under consideration. When they have been calculated, the Government of India propose to bring them into force, with effect from the date of this letter. It is requested, therefore, that all foreign employers who apply for the services of Government servants after that date of receipt of this letter may be informed that they will be required to make good, with retrospective effect the difference between the existing rates of contribution and the rates which may ultimately be fixed by the Government of India under fundamental rule 117.

No.35 -- E.B., Government of India, Finance Department.
Delhi, the 1st January 1922.

RESOLUTIONS.

Under rule 109 of the fundamental rules, Chapter XII of those rules which contains regulations relating to foreign service, applies to those Government servants only who are transferred to foreign service after the 1st January 1922, those transferred previously remaining subject to the rules in force as the time of transfer. Government servants of the latter class, are however, entitled to take the benefit of the new rules, and will be adjudged to have elected to do so if they do not exercise the option given by fundamental rule 58. To cover cases in which such Government servants come under the new leave rules, the Government of India are pleased to rule,

i. that their pay in foreign service shall be treated as pay for the purpose of calculating; leave-salary, and

ii. that the existing obligation of foreign employers to pay a portion of leave allowances during privilege leave shall be held to continue during the first four months of any period of leave on average pay.

DEAR SIR,

Re. the conversation I had with you on Thursday last about the salary proposed for the new Professor of Indian History, I am directed to say that the Vice-Chancellor approves of the suggestions kindly made by you. He also thinks that it would be more advantageous to the University, as well as to the Professor, if the following alteration be made in the proposal already submitted. The Professor may be offered Rs. 400-50-650; and if he does not accept it as he will soon be drawing, if he is not already drawing, Rs. 400/-, he may be offered Rs. 450-50-700, the University paying the pensionary contribution of 25% of his pay here. No leave allowances need be paid.

Dear Sir,

with reference to the correspondence ending with D.O. letter No.1605 of the 17th July 1922 from the Registrar M.U. regarding the appointment of a Professor of History in ~~the Mysore University~~, I am desired to state that the Government have approved of the appointment of Mr. S.V.Venkateswara Aiyar, M.A., L.T., Lecturer, Ceded Districts College, Anantapur, as Professor of Indian History on the following terms:-

(1) Loan of his services to be obtained for a period of 3 years from the Madras Govt.

2) Salary - Rs.450 with an annual increment of Rs.50.

3) Pension and leave contributions to be paid by the Mysore ~~Durbar~~ Govt during the period.

Before making a formal application through the Residency, I am desired to request you to kindly ascertain and let me know whether Mr. Venkateswara Aiyar is willing to ~~xxx~~ accept the appointment on the terms proposed.

The favour of a very early reply is requested.

C.P. 226.

Dear Sir,

Your D.O. No. 4914 dated the 30th June 1922 regarding Mr. Venkatesvara Iyer's appointment.

With reference to the above I am directed to forward the enclosed copy of Mr. Venkatesvara Iyer's letter dated the 14 July 1922 in which he accepts the offer and agrees to the terms proposed by Government. He is, he says, ready to join duty in Mysore as soon he is relieved by the Madras Government. The Residency, may, therefore, be kindly addressed early, as the services of a Professor are urgently required for doing Indian History work.

In this connection, however, Mr. Venkatesvara Iyer has submitted for the consideration of the Vice-Chancellor, a request that he may be given an additional pay Rs. 50/- or a 'rent-free' house in consideration of the fact that he will be drawing 400/- in Madras from October next and that he will have to pay higher rent for his house in Mysore and and incur other additional expenses.

The Vice-Chancellor considers the request not unreasonable and directs me to submit the following proposals for the consideration of Government:-

Should Government be pleased to consider Mr. Venkatesvara Iyer's request, there will be the three following alternatives before them:-

(1) Rs 500/- with no house;
(2) Rs 500/- with house, rent being paid by him.
(3) Rs 450/- with house (rent-free).

Government, it is believed, will have to pay a pensionary contribution of 25 per cent of the Professor's pay here, and the total contribution for a month during the first year would, on that supposition, be Rs 112-8-0 on Rs 450/- or Rs 125/- on 500/-. Again, if the house which had been assigned to Dr. Mookerji be made over to Professor Venkatesvara Iyer, the rent now paid by Mrs. Hensman who is occupying it would be reduced from Rs 60/- or Rs 65/- per mensem to Rs 50/- or 45/- according as the the pay is fixed at Rs. 500/- or 450/-.

Now, under alternative (1), the cost to Government will be Rs. 500/- plus 125/- or Rs. 625/-, the 1st year; Rs. 550/- plus Rs. 137½ or Rs. 687½, the second year; and Rs. 600/, plus Rs. 150/- or Rs. 750/-, the third year.

Under alternative (2), the cost to Government will be Rs. 500/- plus 125/- plus Rs. 15/- (loss on house rent), i.e. Rs. 640/- the 1st year; Rs. 550/- plus Rs. 137½ plus Rs. 15/- or Rs. 702½ the 2nd year; and Rs. 600/- plus Rs. 150/- plus Rs. 10/- or Rs. 760/- the third year.

Under alternative (3), the cost to Government will be Rs. 450/- plus Rs. 112½ plus Rs. 65/-, i.e. Rs. 627½/- the 1st year; Rs. 500/- plus 125 plus Rs. 70/- i.e. 695/- the 2nd year; and Rs. 550/- plus Rs. 137½/- plus Rs. 70/- or Rs. 757½ the 3rd year.

If any of these alternatives be accepted the Vice-Chancellor would recommend the alternative (a), as of the the three it will be least costly to Government and cause no inconvenience to the present occupier.

Yours sincerely,

M. Krishnamurthy

K. Matthan, Esq., B.A.,

Letter dated the 14th July 1923 from Mr. S.Venkatesvara Iyer, Lecturer in History, Ceded Districts College, Anantapur, to the Registrar, Mysore University, Mysore.

In reply to your D.O. No.52 dated the 10th instant, I write to inform you that I shall gladly accept your kind offer on the terms stated in your letter, and that I shall join duty there as soon as I am relieved by the Madras Government.

I should, however, bring it to your notice that I should be, immediately, a loser in that my salary would be Rs.400/- from October onwards, and the addition of Rs.50/- you offer would hardly cover the additional expenditure such as on house rent which I have to incur at Mysore. I would, therefore request you to be so good as to place this matter before the Vice-Chancellor for his kind consideration so that he may be pleased to move the Government to give me an increment of Rs.50/- in my starting salary or to give me a rent-free house, if he be convinced of the reasonableness of my request.

As I am a stranger to Mysore, I trust you will kindly arrange to furnish me with the quarters given to my predecessor, Dr. Mukerjee. I believe, I shall be considered to have joined duty from the date on which I am relieved in British ~~Indian~~ Indian Service.

From the Hon'ble theResident in Mysore, No.6978/257 A-15 dated the 31st August 1922.

From the Director of Public Instruction, No.1987 C/22, dated the 23rd August 1922.

From the Accountant General, No. Pen. C.V.2-435 dated the 2nd September 1922.

Order.

Under rule 110 (c) of the Fundamental rules, the Government sanction the loan of the services of M.R.Ry. S. V. Venkateswara Ayyar Avargal, Lecturer, Ceded Districts College, Anantapur to the Mysore Durbar for employment as Professor of Indian History in the Maharaja's College, Mysore, for a period of three years on a salary of Rs.500/- per mensem during the first year with annual increments of Rs.50/- for the next two years. The contribution on account of his leave salary and pension while in foreign service will be paid by the Mysore Durbar.

The Director of Public Instruction is requested to relieve M.R.Ry. Venkateswara Ayyar at a very early date and to direct him to report himself to the Vice Chancellor of the Mysore University at Mysore.

3. The rate of contribution for leave salary and pension payable to Government by the Durbar is at present one fourth of Mr. Venkateswara Ayyar's foreign service pay. But the Durbar will have to make good with retrospective effect the difference, if any, between this rate and that which may ultimately be fixed by the Government of India.
